The Colored Rooms are a many-faceted realm of Oblivion, created and ruled over by Meridia, known as the Daedric Prince of Infinite Energies. From what little has been seen of the Colored Rooms, they seem to resemble a cross between a coral reef and a vast field of floating stones, strewn with colorful trails of dust or cloud. The "ground" between the stones looks like ...

The Aedra (singular: Aedroth)[1][UL 1] are one of the two groups of immortals which took part in the creation of Mundus. Their name is from the old Aldmeric language, and translates roughly into "our ancestors," referring to their role as the progenitors of mer and men.[1][2] To the majority of cultures on Tamriel, the Aedra are revered as gods.[3] As Oblivion is the night sky on ...

The Serpent (known as the Snake in the Stars to the Reachmen, or simply the Snake to both Reachmen and Redguards) is a constellation of four unstars which is not relegated to being in the night sky during a particular time of the year.
