How much does Sunrun cost?

Sunrun is great for homeowners who want to go solar but can't afford the upfront cost, which even with federal tax credits, averages about $22,000 nationwide. That's according to the latest data from EnergySage, a solar marketplace (and a GH Home Reno Award winner) that helps consumers shop for home energy solutions.

Is Sunrun a good company?

Overall, Sunrun's BBB ratings are decent. It holds an A+ rating with the consumer trust site and an accreditation. It also holds a 4.1-star rating with Consumer Affairs. However, things get a little rockier with Trustpilot and SolarReviews. The company holds a 1.5-star and 1.75-star rating, respectively.

Is Sunrun a good solar installation company?

Because of its focus on leasing, Sunrun isn't as cost-effective as other solar installation companies. The company still offers solar loans and full purchase payment options, but there are fewer additional perks with these plans with Sunrun.

Should you buy a solar panel from Sunrun?

Sunrun offers all the traditional payment methods for home solar panel installation. However, it offers a unique leasing option where you can lock the electricity rate for 25 years. Full purchase: If you're concerned about getting the most financial benefit from your solar panel system, you should purchase the system in full from Sunrun.

Is Sunrun a scam?

With that in mind, Sunrun may not be the right choice for you, but its products and services are not a scam. Additionally, Sunrun offers a 25-year warranty that covers the solar equipment they install. Payment options for Sunrun include cash, loan, lease and PPA. Scammers sometimes use a company's name and likeness to trick potential customers.

Does Sunrun offer solar loans?

The company still offers solar loans and full purchase payment options, but there are fewer additional perks with these plans with Sunrun. This dynamic makes Sunrun less appealing if you care to get more financial gain out of a solar panel system, which loans and full purchases permit.
